

Liliesleaf

A PLACE Of LIBERATION

On his final visit to Liliesleaf in 2005 Nelson Mandela articulated what made Liliesleaf unique. He said Liliesleaf was a place of intellectual, ideological, and strategic military discourse and engagement.

Liliesleaf was the underground headquarters of the ANC, the Communist Party and UmKhonto we Sizwe

It is now a superb prize winning interactive museum with well researched information presented in exciting ways. Access is disability friendly.

"During my lifetime I have dedicated my life to this struggle of the African people. I have fought against white domination and I have fought against black domination. I have cherished the ideal of a democratic and free society in which all persons will live together in harmony and with equal opportunities. It is an ideal for which I hope to live for and to see realized. But My Lord, if it needs be, it is an ideal for which I am prepared to die."(From Nelson Mandela's " I am prepared to die" speech from the dock during the Rivonia Trial in April, 1964)
