It has been announced today (15 October 1993) that F.W. de Klerk and Nelson Mandela have been jointly awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.

With the very high level of violence in this country, and with the state (led by De Klerk) and the ANC (led by Mandela) being among the principal agencies of violence, it is the height of cynicism for a prize to be given to these two leaders.

Imperialism is instrumental in this. It is payment for services rendered and TO BE RENDERED for imperialism.
