

The story of the break-up of PEN in SA

The article by Lionel Abrahams, withdrawn from the February 1983 issue of Sash (Vol 25 No 4), has now been published, together with a complementary article by Mike Kirkwood, in SESAME No 3, 1983/4. It can be obtained from Renoster Books, 1a Fifth Street, Victoria, Johannesburg 2192 or, in Johannesburg, from the Market Bookshop, Exclusive Books, Children's Bookshop (Rosebank), Bookworm and some CNA branches.

- Officials of the SA government have said that people do not lose their rights when they move to a bantustan.

THIS IS NOT TRUE.

The people of Umlazi and KwaMashu have lost all their rights.

- Officials of the SA government have said that Lamontville and Hambanati people will not lose any rights they have at the moment.

THIS IS NOT TRUE.

The law says it is not possible for these people to keep their Section 10 rights.

REMEMBER

THIS IS ALL PART OF THE PLAN OF THE SA GOVERNMENT TO EXCLUDE BLACK PEOPLE FROM ANY RIGHTS OUTSIDE THE BANTUSTANS

Published and printed by the BLACK SASH (Natal Coastal Region)
2 Central Court 125 Gale Street Durban

CONTENTS

- |            |   |  |  |
|------------|---|--|--|
| 1          | Editorial   |  |  |
| 2          | Mogopa rebuilds   |  |  |
| 7          | Feudalism in the age of computersMarian Lacey   |  |  |
| 14         | Sash visits Greenham CommonJill Wentzel   |  |  |
| 16         | Grasmere — an updated report  |  |  |
| 17         | On showing photographs of CrossroadsCornelia Bullen Smith   |  |  |
| 18         | Orwell's contemporaries and intellectual fascismJill Wentzel  |  |  |
| 21         | UDF — affiliate or co-operate?Helen Zille   |  |  |
| 25         | Black local government in SASheena Duncan   |  |  |
| 32         | Nana Wynberg  |  |  |
|            | Reviews:  |  |  |
|            | (a) Black housing in the Cape — historical survey by Kim EliasReviewed by J de Tolly                              |  |  |
| Back Cover | (b) The borders of apartheid — photographs and chronology of dispossession by Paul AlbertsReviewed by Janet Sahli |  |  |
- Cover picture: from a painting by Robert Hodgins — photo: Ingrid Hudson