

Senator Edward Kennedy talks to the elders and people of Mathopiestad during his recent visit to South Africa. Seated next to Chief John Mathope (centre) is the next chief, Solomon Mathope. photo: Gill De Vlieg

CONTENTS

Editorial	1
Controversy over recent Sash editorial	2
Rural blacks in the western Cape	5
Sue Joynt
Black housing	7
— weapon of apartheid
Pauline Morris
The Institute of Race Relations	14
— its role and relevance
Jill Wentzel interviews Institute's Director
John Kane-Berman
Johannesburg morning market	19 & 30
Our debt to DET?	20
Verna Brown
Overseas investment in SA	24
Black worker attitudes
Lawrence Schlemmer
On trial at Cradock	31
Brian Bishop
Detentions protest	back cover

MERLE BEETGE —

The Star's unsung heroine for 1984

Having been nominated by one of the Grasmere squatter community, Sash member MERLE BEETGE was elected Unsung Heroine by The Star newspaper's readership in recognition of her hard work among the Grasmere community, her initiative, negotiating skill, accurate fact-finding and quiet, unselfish reliability.