

A tragedy we can never forget....

Soweto 1976: Thousands of black pupils protested against Afrikaans as a medium of instruction in schools. The result is history. Yet the memory of those violent weeks continue to haunt black people, for what began as a peaceful boycott of classes erupted into a bloody confrontation between police and pupils.