

Did Christ also die for political prisoners and their families?

Of course He did.
He gave His life for the sins of all.
Yet we sit in our comfort and allow women and children to starve and the family unit to break up.
Ours is not to condemn, ostracize or deny them.
Ours is simply to behave like Christians. Our compassion must know no bounds because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. The actions prompted by this love and concern for all men and women, in whatever conditions they may find, or even have placed themselves, are the good works which will glorify our Father which is in Heaven.
Don't let them go hungry.
Don't let them walk naked.
Don't let them fall sick.
Don't let the family break up.
They are not excluded from the love of Christ.
He gave His life for them.
What will you give?
