

91233 TREES UPROOTED

Olives are traditionally a staple product of Palestine, accounting for massive areas of land and providing an important biennial income for farmers. Land seizure has had a drastic impact on Olive cultivation as has the ban on planting trees without permission, it has also suffered uprooting as a measure of collective punishment against PALESTINIANS.