

NUMSA SHOPSTEWARDS ELECTIONS - 1993

THE YEAR OF CHANGE!

- February 1993 is the month of shopsteward elections.
- Numsa constitution says a shopsteward elected now will serve for 3 years.

RULES FOR ELECTIONS

- Hold general meeting to discuss the importance of shopstewards elections.
- Establish clear constituencies which each shopsteward will represent.
- Demand time from management for nominations and time for holding elections.
- Any member of Numsa can be nominated and be elected.
- Old shopstewards can also be nominated and elected.
- Shopstewards cannot conduct elections, only organisers.
- Management cannot get involved in the elections.

A GOOD SHOPSTEWARD

- Is clear about workers struggle.
- Calls regular general meetings and reportbacks.
- Builds a strong shopsteward committee.
- Attends Numsa local meetings.
- Speaks on workers mandates.
- Fights for workers rights.
- Defends workers power.
