

"We are Namibians and not South Africans. We do not now, and will not in the future recognise your right to govern us; to make laws for us in which we had no say; to treat our country as if it were your property and as if you were our masters." - Herman Toivo ja Toivo.

"Many of our people, through no fault of their own, have had no education at all. This does not mean that they do not know what they want. A man does not have to be formally educated to know that he wants to live with his family where he wants to live; . . . to earn a decent wage; . . . and finally to be ruled by the people that he wants to be ruled by, and not by those who rule him because they have more guns than he has." - Herman Toivo ja Toivo.

The People of Namibia

No other African people have suffered so agonisingly under colonialism, as have the one million people of Namibia.

Under their German colonisers, the Herero and Nama people were brought to desperation - and, in 1904 rebelled. The German response was to issue extermination orders which reduced the Herero population from 60 000 to 16 000 and the Nama population from 20 000 to 9 800.

At present, both the war against colonialism, and the suffering of the people continue.

This calendar is dedicated to the people of Namibia who have suffered and are suffering, in the struggle for Nationhood.
