

SUITS by MARCHESA Polyester Jersey 10 1/2-18 1/2 20 1/2-22 1/2 R45,99 R51,99 Cream, Tan, Navy, Maroon

The Natal Witness The Oldest Newspaper in South Africa - Established 1846

DELSWA DRESSES 100% POLYESTER/JERSEY THE NECKLINE... R44,99 R39,99

Rains raised hopes, but not dams THE steady rains which brought between 15 mm and 20 mm rainfall to the City region yesterday are unlikely to have affected the levels of the dams in the Umgeni River system.

Witness Reporter THE steady rains which brought between 15 mm and 20 mm rainfall to the City region yesterday are unlikely to have affected the levels of the dams in the Umgeni River system.

WEATHER CLOUDY AND MILD (See Page 2)

Eudey death: Const. on trial THE trial of a City policeman, who has been charged with culpable homicide following the College Road shooting of 11-year-old Mr Brian Eudey in February this year, begins at the College Road Supreme Court today.

Witness Reporter THE trial of a City policeman, who has been charged with culpable homicide following the College Road shooting of 11-year-old Mr Brian Eudey in February this year, begins at the College Road Supreme Court today.

Petrol bomb for Pope's Mass MILAN - A young man hurled a petrol bomb at the stand where Pope John Paul II was to deliver a final Mass before leaving Milan, police said.

Five killed as stunt plane turns into blazing wreckage FRANKFURT - A Canadian Air Force Starfighter crashed and killed three adults and two children in a car yesterday during an air display watched by half a million people.

Bomb damage runs into millions

Another body was rescued from the rubble and debris caused by the blast and repair work to damaged buildings has also begun.

23 die in Lebanon mountain feud BEIRUT - At least 23 people have been murdered in Lebanon's Shouf Mountains in a week-long mountain feud.

9 die as avalanche hits village TEGLIO (Italy) - A giant avalanche roared down on Teglio in northern Italy, killing nine people and injuring at least 20 yesterday, officials said.

Eye cancer treated successfully SAN FRANCISCO - Using an "atom smasher", doctors at the University of California have successfully treated a form of eye cancer in almost all patients who - under other treatments - would probably have lost the eye.

British art expert, author dies LONDON - Lord Kenneth Clark, the distinguished British art historian and author of the widely acclaimed book 'Civilisation', died at a nursing home, aged 79, on Saturday.

European Cup final on TV this week FOOTBALL fans are having a bonanza week on TV.

Camels outrun customs ISLAMABAD - Drug smugglers operating along the 830 km Pakistan-Iran border are feeling their camels' hooves in a bid to outrun customs officers on their trail, the Dawn newspaper reported at the weekend.

Teenagers' sexy dressing banned SEOUL - South Korea is banning sexy dressing by teenagers to prevent indecent exposure during the summer.

Mr Louis le Grange We cannot allow it and we will, at our discretion and in our interest, plan actions as we may find it necessary, said - Sapa.

Girl robbed, man chases attacker by Wyndham Hartley IT was all action at the cross country on Friday afternoon when a young girl was robbed at knifepoint and a City man pursued and apprehended the assailant.

Buffs fail to rouse silent Viking PASKING I relayed more than 2 million weather reports and thousands of pictures of the red planet, earth's closest neighbour, since it landed on Mars' surface on 25th December.

Inside Books: P-4 Classified Ads: P-124 Crossword: P-18 Letters: P-8 Legal: P-14 Life: P-14, 17, 18, 19, 20 Sport: P-10, 12 Winsophonic: 2000-2001 Adverts: 2002

Witness Reporter THE steady rains which brought between 15 mm and 20 mm rainfall to the City region yesterday are unlikely to have affected the levels of the dams in the Umgeni River system.

Witness Reporter THE steady rains which brought between 15 mm and 20 mm rainfall to the City region yesterday are unlikely to have affected the levels of the dams in the Umgeni River system.

Witness Reporter THE steady rains which brought between 15 mm and 20 mm rainfall to the City region yesterday are unlikely to have affected the levels of the dams in the Umgeni River system.

Witness Reporter THE steady rains which brought between 15 mm and 20 mm rainfall to the City region yesterday are unlikely to have affected the levels of the dams in the Umgeni River system.

Witness Reporter THE steady rains which brought between 15 mm and 20 mm rainfall to the City region yesterday are unlikely to have affected the levels of the dams in the Umgeni River system.

Witness Reporter THE steady rains which brought between 15 mm and 20 mm rainfall to the City region yesterday are unlikely to have affected the levels of the dams in the Umgeni River system.

Witness Reporter THE steady rains which brought between 15 mm and 20 mm rainfall to the City region yesterday are unlikely to have affected the levels of the dams in the Umgeni River system.

Witness Reporter THE steady rains which brought between 15 mm and 20 mm rainfall to the City region yesterday are unlikely to have affected the levels of the dams in the Umgeni River system.

AKAI STEREO HIFI SYSTEM II 42 WATTS TOTAL OUTPUT R125 SANYO PORTABLE RADIO-CASSETTE R138 GOVAN MANI 522 CHURCH STREET PIETERMARITZBURG