

Liberation Walk 2017 Fundraiser Art Auction Press release:

The date for the annual Indigenous Liberation Walk has been established and preparation for an art auction is set in motion to fund this favourable event. The aim of this non profitable event is to ensure that the legacy and culture of the Khoi people are recognised, remembered and celebrated.

Hakkiesdraad Hartman always says, “You build a wall brick by brick and one of these bricks are getting laid on 4 February 2017”. This cultural masonry in the form of an art auction, will be held at Unknown Union, 44 Bloem street, Cape Town, as a fundraising venture towards financing the safety vehicle for the Indigenous Liberation Walk 2017. and the event will showcase a broad spectrum of artist from Khoi&Bushmen descent.

The showcase is spearheaded by /Khora Gom (George) and supported by Coloured Mentality and Unknown Union (Cape Town). Some of the artists who will display their artwork and who's pieces will be up for auction are /Ae /Uib Klintin Whitehead, Neal Hartman, Kevin van Niekerk, Winkley Lawrence, BreimasjienAnthony Noble, Denver Lopez, Roger Bosch, Mak1One, Michaelangelo, Dez Hill and Hakkiesdraad Hartman. They will also be available for a meet and greet with possible buyers on the evening of the event. Hakkiesdraad Hartman will be the MC of the event as well as entertain guests at the event with a live performances from Collin the bushman, Loit Sols, Breimasjien, Garlic Brown, Niko10long, Khoi Khonexion, Dikwe X Carelse and Sibannac Tafari. The legendary graffiti artist Mak1One will do a live graffiti piece together with the poetic activist Dikwe X. Hemelbesem will also be contributing a written interpretation of the abstract work of /Ae /Uib Klintin Whitehead. The singer, song writer and author Blac Pearl will also deliver a reading from her books Kratoa and Kadaar. This will undoubtedly be an event to mark off on the calendar, rich with talent and warm intelligent conversation. Not to be missed