

University of Johannesburg

Symposium of the Departments of Sociology and Anthropology & Development Studies

JIAS building, 1 Tolip Street, Westdene

Monday January 29: 9am-5pm

State capture and inequality

it is essential to RSVP

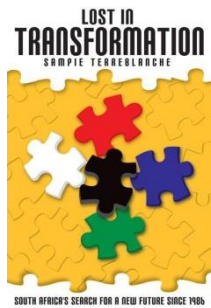

(specifying dietary needs)

before Friday 26/1:

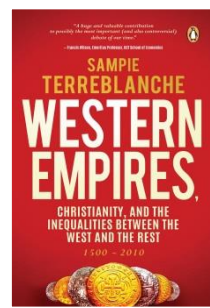

rdube@uj.ac.za

A tribute to Sampie Terreblanche, the political economist whose support for both democracy and a wealth tax earned him the wrath of the National Party and African National Congress

State capture and inequality as seen by Sampie Terreblanche

9-10:45: From Broederbond to rebel, the life and times of Sampie Terreblanche

- Welcome: Simphiwe Nojiyeza (UJ Anthro&Dev Studies)
- William Gumede (Wits School of Governance)
- Christelle Terreblanche (daughter & UKZN Dev Studies)
- Amanda Gouws (Stellenbosch Univ Political Science)
- Pieter le Roux (University of the Western Cape)
- Moeletsi Mbeki (Sampie's main editor and publisher, KMM Review Publishing Company)
- tributes by local and international colleagues

11-1: Lost in Transformation and the original 'state capture' debate, 1990s

- Jeremy Cronin (SA Communist Party)
- Floyd Shivambu (EFF, Wits School of Governance)
- Ronnie Kasrils (former SA Minister of Intelligence)
- Verne Harris (Nelson Mandela Foundation)
- Yasmin Sooka (Foundation for Human Rights)

2-3: Western Empires, SA assimilation

- Patrick Bond (Wits School of Governance)
- Samantha Ashman (UJ Economics)
- Gumani Tshimomola (EFF, Wits School of Governance)
- Simone Claar (University of Kassel)
- Drucilla Cornell (Rutgers Univ. and Univ. of Pretoria)

3:15-5: The fightback against inequality

- Jane Duncan (UJ Media Studies)
- Peter Alexander (UJ Centre for Social Change)
- Fazila Farouk (Univ of Cape Town SALDRU)
- Isobel Frye (Studies in Poverty & Inequality Institute)
- Karl Cloete (National Union of Metalworkers of SA)
- Trevor Ngwane (United Front, Centre for Social Change)
- Eddie Webster (Wits Southern Centre for Inequality Studies): Working Paper #1 by Sampie Terreblanche

5pm: Closing

- Kammila Naidoo and Ashwin Desai (UJ Sociology)

Terreblanche: fees can fall and welfare can rise, by wealth-taxing the rich and the corporations